

PART-TIME KENTUCKY DVM POSITIONS WITH FLEXIBLE SCHEDULE

Location: Russellville, KY

Website: www.loganvet.com

Are you a veterinarian seeking work-life balance? Then we are the place for you! AAHA-accredited small animal clinic in a south-central Kentucky rural community seeking two part-time veterinarians looking to work independently 3 days a week. Days are flexible to make it match both our schedules. New graduates, experienced, military/government, or semi-retired DVM's welcome to apply.

We are a paper-lite clinic utilizing Cornerstore software. We offer full IDEXX in house diagnostics, ultrasound, digital radiology, digital dental radiology, therapeutic laser therapy, tono-pen, and more. Oncology and advanced dentistry are rapidly growing segments of our practice.

We perform routine veterinary surgeries as well as advance orthopedic procedures including plating and TPLOs. We average more than one hundred surgeries a month. Candidates with surgical skills are preferred but not mandatory. We are a teaching clinic and we believe in mentoring our staff.

Our friendly, well-trained staff is team-motivated and highly skilled in assisting, client communication, and customer service. Our team members are highly leveraged in all aspects of the general operation of the clinic, so the veterinarians can focus on the clients and the pets!

Logan County Animal Clinic is a progressive, fast-paced small animal practice located one hour north of Nashville, TN. Our mission is to provide comprehensive high quality veterinary care with emphasis on exceptional client service and patient care, while providing employees with desirable, fulfilling and financially rewarding employment.

Veterinarians must hold a current Kentucky State Veterinary Medical License.

Compensation includes salary, dues, and continuing education allowance.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to kclary@loganvet.com.
