PATHWAYS PROGRAM
Prairie View A&M University in Partnership with Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine

Come ready to learn. Leave ready to practice.
At Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine, we provide a pathway for qualified Prairie View A&M University students to become the next generation of career-ready, compassionate veterinarians and researchers. We welcome students from Historically Black Colleges and Universities as part of our commitment to diversity and inclusivity with a focused effort to recruit students from a wide range of backgrounds. We foster a community rich in ideas, diverse in experiences, and dedicated to social justice to support your career path; one that impacts the lives and welfare of animals and people across the globe.

WHY ROSS VET
- Nationally recognized AVMA-accredited DVM program
- Broad-based curriculum and critical hands-on clinical skills, taught early on at the Ross Vet AAHA-accredited Veterinary Clinic
- Culturally distinct environment in St. Kitts filled with natural beauty, and exotic marine and tropical wildlife
- The educational foundation needed for various career paths that contribute to human and animal health such as: food quality and safety, food security, behavior, biomedical research, wildlife, and environmental health
- Dual degree programs that give students the opportunity to complete a master's degree alongside their Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree
