

Speaking Standard: Kindergarten through 6th grade

Kindergarten	1 st Grade	2 nd Grade	3 rd Grade	4 th Grade	5 th Grade	6 th Grade
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey intention • Speaks audibly and clearly with enunciation and eye contact • Takes turns when speaking in a group with guidance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey ideas, thoughts, and feelings • Speaks using grade level appropriate vocabulary • Speaks audibly and clearly using appropriate pace and expression • Shares information orally by speaking clearly with appropriate volume, pace, expression, and eye contact • Takes turns when speaking in a group 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey clear main idea • Speaks clearly using appropriate pace, expression, volume, body language, and eye contact when presenting • Able to present own work and share opinions with class • Takes turns when speaking in a group 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey a clear main idea, using grade level and subject appropriate vocabulary; expressing an opinion concisely and accurately • Able to present information formally and informally with appropriate rate, volume, pacing, body language, and eye contact • Takes part in formal presentations in front of an audience, utilizing appropriate expression and intonation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey a clear main idea, using grade level and subject appropriate vocabulary; expressing an opinion concisely and accurately • Able to present information formally and informally with appropriate rate, volume, pacing, body language, and eye contact • Takes part in formal presentations in front of an audience, utilizing appropriate expression and intonation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey a clear main idea, using grade level and subject appropriate vocabulary; expressing an opinion concisely and accurately • Presents information formally and informally with appropriate rate, volume, pacing, body language, and eye contact • Formally presents in front of an audience, utilizing appropriate expression and intonation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaks to convey a clear main idea, using grade level and subject appropriate vocabulary; expressing an opinion concisely and accurately • Presents information formally and informally with appropriate rate, volume, pacing, body language, and eye contact • Formally presents in front of an audience, utilizing appropriate expression and intonation