VET PREP PROGRAM

ROSS UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO FACT SHEET

WHAT WILL I LEARN AND EXPERIENCE IN MY STUDIES?

Courses in the Vet Prep program include science, mathematics, and scientific writing. Case-based learning is a separate course, though its principles as used throughout the Vet Prep program. Additionally, students can benefit from a transitional course that introduces them to their academic veterinary medicine program, an promotes mindfulness and study skills.

Students who successfully complete the Vet Prep program will be placed into first semester classes. The Admissions Committee decides who is accepted into this program.

For more information about the Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine Vet Prep program, see: veterinary.rossu.edu/dvm-program/vet-prep-program

WHAT SERVICES WILL I RECEIVE?

Services available to all students include:

• A New Student Coordinator to answer questions, review necessary visa materials, liaise with student housing as needed, and provide general support to incoming students.

• Health and wellness services available through the Student Health Services Office and Counseling Center.

• Academic support through the Student Success Center, including individual study strategy appointments, interactive study skills workshop, academic coaching, teaching assistants, and tutor program.
PROGRAM COSTS AND FINANCING OPTIONS

Tuition for the Vet Prep program is $13,859. Other required costs include health insurance, housing and association fees.

Financial aid is not available for the Vet Prep program, with the following payment options available:

• Full payment at time of enrollment
• Private loan through bank
• Installment payment plan

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

76% of students who enrolled in fiscal year 2021–22 successfully completed the Vet Prep program.

76%

INFORMATION SOURCES

Program Costs: Tuition rate effective September 2022. Other required costs include health insurance, housing and association fees. Please visit https://veterinary.rossu.edu/admissions/dvm-admissions/financial-aid/tuition-fees.html for additional information.

Program Outcomes: Vet Prep calculates this based on internal data and is defined as the percentage of students starting the prep program in fiscal year 2021–22 who successfully completed it.